

Advertise your Business, Venue, Events or services with SLAP Magazine. The go-to publication for Arts & Music in the South Midlands

Building on the success of the last seven years, but never resting on our laurels, SLAP Magazine has grown to a larger format providing more advertising options at reasonable rates.

Your advert will be seen by a targeted and truly local audience because SLAP is packed full of exciting editorial to keep our readers interested for longer whilst holding on to the magazine as a reference throughout the month.

Like you we are a local business and want to be vital to our customers, that's our readers and our advertisers. With a variety of size options you can put your message across with an advert to promote your business at an affordable cost with a full FREE design service.

SLAP is produced to a very high standard. All artwork can be finished to ensure that your company image is enhanced by its association with a high quality publication.
